Who are we?

Northeast Battery has been ranked by Inc. Magazine as one of America's fastest growing companies. Our growth is powered by our belief that you come first. We want to provide you with more than batteries. We strive to deliver a solution to a problem, and we do that with our team of dedicated experts. Our comprehensive product line hails from respected manufacturers like Trojan and EnerSys, among many others. We work with the best because you, your products, equipment, and customers – they all deserve the best.

What will you be doing?

As a full-time experienced driver with a CDL-B license, you'll travel locally to deliver batteries to our customers, while understanding and adhering to all safety policies and regulations. A clean driving record and top-notch customer service skills are a must! We're proud of our fleet of box trucks that are all current, well maintained, and a rolling billboard of who we are!
